Origins and Historical Context of Tenerife Lace

The Birth of Tenerife Lace

Tenerife lace, also known as Tenerife bobbin lace, developed in the early 19th century in the Canary Islands, particularly on the island of Tenerife. The lace gained popularity due to its light, openwork design, making it ideal for decorative textiles such as clothing, household linens, and ecclesiastical garments. Its distinctive style features fine threads woven into intricate geometric and floral patterns, often characterized by a combination of pin-tucked and netted techniques.
