Theoretical Foundation

The Assignment Public Relation N5 2013 is rooted in classical PR models such as Grunig and Hunt's four models of public relations and the situational theory of publics. It emphasizes understanding the strategic communication process, aligning with contemporary practices that prioritize two-way symmetrical communication.

Assessment Criteria and Fairness

Evaluation rubrics focus on clarity, evidence, strategic thinking, and ethical considerations. While these criteria are appropriate, some students and educators note that the grading can be subjective, especially regarding creativity and originality.

More detailed criteria, including specific benchmarks for digital communication skills and ethical reasoning, would promote fairness and transparency.
