The Origins of "The Star-Spangled Banner"

The Historical Context of Its Composition

The story of the American anthem begins during the War of 1812, a conflict between the United States and Great Britain that tested the young nation's resilience. The war's tumultuous events, especially the British invasion of Baltimore in 1814, set the stage for the song's creation.

In September 1814, as British forces bombarded Fort McHenry, located in Baltimore Harbor, Francis Scott Key, a young lawyer and amateur poet, watched anxiously from a ship nearby. Inspired by the sight of the American flag flying triumphantly over the fort after the attack, Key was moved to compose a poem that would later become the lyrics of the national anthem.

- The Poem's Structure: The original poem consists of four stanzas, each with eight lines. However, only the first stanza is commonly sung today.
