The Poem: An Overview

The "Gone From My Sight" poem typically reads as follows:

- > I am standing upon the seashore.
- > A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.
- > She is an object of beauty and strength.
- > I stand and watch her until at last she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to meet.
- > Then someone says, "There, she is gone!"
- > Gone where?
- > Gone from my sight? that is all.
- > She is just as large in the mast, hull and spar as she was when I saw her the day I saw her leave my sight.
- > The loss of sight is in me, not in her.
- > And just at the moment when someone says, "There, she is gone," there are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout, "Here she comes!"
