- Fragmentation: The diversity of feminist perspectives sometimes leads to fragmentation, making unified action difficult.
- Institutional Barriers: Political and legal institutions may resist or undermine feminist initiatives.
- Internal Tensions: Debates around inclusivity, representation, and priorities can create internal conflicts within movements.

Strategies for Effective Feminist Action

Taylor emphasizes several strategies that have proven effective across different contexts:

- Building Alliances: Forming coalitions across social movements, such as environmental, labor, and civil rights groups.
