Students listen to recordings and answer questions based on what they hear. Past papers help learners anticipate common question formats, such as multiple-choice, matching, or completing sentences.

- Reading and Writing (Part 1-7)

This section tests comprehension and writing skills. Past papers often include reading passages, matching exercises, and short writing tasks like filling in blanks or writing sentences based on prompts.

- Speaking (Part 1-4)

Though not always included in written past papers, practice tests or simulated speaking exams are available. These focus on everyday conversations, describing pictures, or answering questions about familiar topics.

- Use of English

This component assesses vocabulary, grammar, and sentence structure. Past papers feature exercises like gap-fills, word formation, and multiple-choice questions.

By practicing with authentic past papers, students learn to navigate each section more effectively, managing their time and understanding what examiners are looking for.
