Defining Garbage Poetry

Garbage poetry, sometimes referred to as "trash poetry" or "found poetry," is a genre characterized by its deliberate use of discarded, lowbrow, or mundane materials recontextualized into poetic forms. Dadaists, such as Marcel Duchamp, used found objects and readymades to challenge notions of art, a practice that aligns with garbage poetry's ethos.

In contemporary contexts, garbage poetry gained prominence alongside the rise of internet culture and social media platforms like Twitter, Tumblr, and TikTok.
